Import tax data into tax preparation tools

- If you want to import your tax data into an electronic spreadsheet, visit ameriprise.com/taxprofessionals to find instructions and the link to Ameriprise tax download.
- If you choose to use H&R Block®, TaxAct® or TurboTax® tax preparation tools, you can use the import feature for many tax documents in this package.
- You'll need your Package ID and Document ID found on this page to use the tax preparation tools for documents in this package.
- Some tax data may not import and may require manual input.

Important reminders and online resources for filing your 2024 tax return

Each account has only one taxpayer ID, whether owned jointly, by a trust or by a corporation. The IRS requires that we send tax documents to each taxpayer separately. We recommend waiting to file your 2024 tax returns until you have received tax documents for all accounts that had reportable activity in 2024.

Updated tax documents

You may get updated tax documents for some investments reported in this tax package if we receive income reclassification or other changes from the investment issuers. If you own Unit Investment Trusts (UITs), Real Estate Investments Trusts (REITs), Commodity Trusts, or Real Estate mutual funds, consult a qualified tax professional about delaying filing your tax returns until early April to avoid re-filing. Learn more about income reclassification at ameriprise.com/taxprofessionals.

View tax documents online

You can view many of your tax documents on the secure site at ameriprise.com. Visit ameriprise.com to register for the secure site, log in, or get additional assistance. Some annuity tax documents may only be available at riversource.com. For help, visit the Taxes page on ameriprise.com and click on "Online tax information FAQ".

IMPORTANT TAX INFORMATION

To help you prepare for tax season, we've enclosed your available tax documents for 2024

Tips for navigating tax season

- ✓ Visit the ameriprise.com/taxes page for document mailing dates and other resources to help you with tax filing.
- ✓ Use the secure site on ameriprise.com for easy online access to your tax documents when they're ready. If it's your first time logging in, visit ameriprise.com/register.
- ✓ You can sign up for e-delivery¹ of your tax documents after you have registered for online access. Click on your Profile and choose online delivery for tax documents under the Communication Preferences tab.
- ✓ Generally, you won't receive a 1099-DIV, 1099-INT or a 1099-OID for any account where your reportable dividend, interest or original issue discount is less than $10 during the year, unless your account was subject to backup withholding².
- ✓ If you own investments that are organized as a trust or partnership³ in accounts that are not part of an IRA or other retirement plan, the documents you need to file your tax returns will come directly from the partnership. We do not provide you with tax documents for partnerships if they produce a Schedule K-1 or other schedules.
- ✓ If you own investments such as mutual funds, Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs) or other investments that revise their tax information, you may receive an amended tax document. We apply the De Minimis Safe Harbor rule that does not require brokers to send amended tax documents for changes of $100 or less ($25 or less for tax withholding changes) to clients and the IRS⁴. For more information, visit the Reclassification section on the ameriprise.com taxes page.
- ✓ Consult a qualified tax professional with any questions or for help in preparing your tax return. Did you move last year or change your name? Submit your legal name and current address to the Social Security Administration, employers, and financial institutions to receive tax documents on time.
- ✓ Tax documents are mailed at different times⁵ for different types of accounts and investments. It is important to make sure everyone in your household receives tax documents for accounts that had relevant reportable activity in 2024 before filing your tax returns.
- ✓ Each account has only one taxpayer and designated taxpayer identification number (TIN), such as a social security number for individuals. Tax documents are only sent to the taxpayer of the account.
 - For jointly owned accounts the tax documents are sent only to the designated taxpayer on the account.
 - For accounts owned by a trust the tax documents are sent to the trustee.
 - For accounts owned by a corporation the tax documents are sent to the corporation's designated agent.

- ✓ Your household may receive more than one tax package for tax year 2024 depending on the accounts you own.
- ✓ If you need to verify the taxpayer on an account, contact your financial advisor or a client service representative at 800.862.7919.

² Ameriprise Stock Market certificates will produce tax documents for income less than $10 during the year.

³ Partnership investments can include master limited partnerships, managed futures funds, real estate private placements, hedge fund private placements, private equities, and qualified opportunity zone funds.

⁴ You can make an election to continue receiving tax document corrections regardless of the amount of the change. To obtain the Opt-Out Election Form 113542, contact your advisor or call 800.862.7919 and ask for Brokerage Service.

⁵ Statements will be mailed by the IRS mailing deadline, unless there are extenuating circumstances that prevent us from meeting the deadline. If we are not able to meet the deadline(s), we will apply for an extension from the IRS.

Neither Ameriprise Financial nor its representatives or affiliates may provide tax or legal advice. Consult your tax advisor or attorney regarding specific issues.

Detail for Dividends and Distributions

This section of your tax information statement contains the payment level detail of your dividends and distributions, including ordinary dividends, qualified dividends, capital gains distributions, unrecaptured Section 1250 gains distributions, collectibles (28%) gains distributions, Section 897 ordinary dividends, Section 897 capital gain distributions, Section 199A dividends, exempt-interest dividends, nondividend distributions (return of capital) and liquidation distributions. Also shown are the fair market values of any taxable stock dividends or noncash liquidation distributions.

Federal, state and foreign tax withheld and investment expenses are presented as negative amounts but do not net against the reportable income totals. All amounts are grouped by security, with the transactions listed in chronological order. Subtotals for each security are provided. For situations in which the tax character of a distribution (or part thereof) is different than at the time it was paid, endnotes are provided for further explanation.

Note that a payment characterized as a "Qualified dividend" is only issuer-qualified, and shareholders also need to meet the holding period for qualified dividends.

This is supplemental detail and is not reported to the IRS. The amounts from the lines in the Form 1099-DIV at the beginning of this statement are the amounts reported to the IRS.

Detail for Interest Income

This section of your tax information statement contains the payment level detail of taxable interest and associated bond premium. Market discount will be shown here only if you have elected to recognize it currently rather than at the time of sale or maturity. Bond premium and market discount for covered tax lots are reported to the IRS on Form 1099-INT. Bond premium and market discount for noncovered tax lots are displayed as supplemental information, please work with your tax professional to determine how this should be included in your tax return.

To provide a complete picture of activity for each investment, we also include here nonreportable transactions such as accrued interest paid on purchases and payment or receipt of nonqualified interest. Other amounts, such as federal, state and foreign tax withheld and investment expenses are shown as negative amounts but do not net against the reportable income totals.

This is supplemental detail and is not reported to the IRS. The amounts from the lines in the Form 1099-INT at the beginning of this statement are the amounts reported to the IRS.

Mutual Fund and UIT Supplemental Information

The following information may be useful in the preparation of your federal and state tax returns. This information represents what was available at the time your tax statement was prepared. It may not be all-inclusive and is subject to change. Please contact your mutual fund, ETF, or UIT directly if you need to verify or supplement this information. Note that depending on your state of residence not all Federal Source income and Tax-Exempt Interest Dividend income is exempt from state taxation. You may wish to consult with your tax advisor regarding the proper treatment. This information is not reported to the IRS. Some of this information could be reported to your state, depending on the state requirements.

Common Instructions for Recipient

Recipient's taxpayer identification number (TIN). For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your TIN (social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN)). However, the issuer has reported your complete TIN to the IRS.

Account number. May show an account or other unique number the payer assigned to distinguish your account.

Backup Withholding. Shows backup withholding. Generally, a payer must backup withhold on certain payments if you did not furnish your TIN or you did not furnish the correct TIN to the payer. See Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification, and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, for information on backup withholding. Include this amount on your income tax return as tax withheld.

Nominees. If this 1099 form includes amounts belonging to another person, you are considered a nominee recipient. You must file as the "payer" the respective Form 1099 (DIV, INT, or OID) Copy A (with a Form 1096) to the IRS for each of the other owners as recipient(s) to show their allocable share of the income and you must furnish the respective Copy B Form(s) and amounts to each owner. A spouse is not required to file a nominee return to show amounts owned by the other spouse. See the current General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

FATCA filing requirement. If the FATCA filing requirement box is checked, the payer is reporting on this Form 1099 to satisfy its account reporting requirement under chapter 4 of the Internal Revenue Code. You may also have a filing requirement. See the instructions for Form 8938.

Keep tax documents for your records.

1099-DIV Instructions for Recipient

Line 1a. Shows total ordinary dividends that are taxable. Include this amount on the "Ordinary dividends" line of Form 1040 or 1040-SR. Also, report it on Schedule B (Form 1040), if required.

Line 1b. Shows the portion of the amount on line 1a that may be eligible for reduced capital gains rates. See the Instructions for Form 1040 for how to determine this amount and where to report. The amount shown may be dividends a corporation paid directly to you as a participant (or beneficiary of a participant) in an employee stock ownership plan (ESOP). Report it as a dividend on your Form 1040 or 1040-SR but treat it as a plan distribution, not as investment income, for any other purpose.

Line 2a. Shows total capital gain distributions from a regulated investment company (RIC) or real estate investment trust (REIT). See How To Report in the Instructions for Schedule D (Form 1040). But, if no amount is shown on lines 2b, 2c, 2d and 2f and your only capital gains and losses are capital gain distributions, you may be able to report the amounts shown on line 2a on your Form 1040 or 1040-SR rather than Schedule D. See the Instructions for Form 1040.

Line 2b. Shows the portion of the amount on line 2a that is unrecaptured section 1250 gain from certain depreciable real property. See the Unrecaptured Section 1250 Gain Worksheet in the Instructions for Schedule D (Form 1040).

Line 2c. Shows the portion of the amount on line 2a that is section 1202 gain from certain small business stock that may be subject to an exclusion. See the Schedule D (Form 1040) instructions.

Line 2d. Shows the portion of the amount on line 2a that is 28% rate gain from sales or exchanges of collectibles. If required, use this amount when completing the 28% Rate Gain Worksheet in the Instructions for Schedule D (Form 1040).

Line 2e. Shows the portion of the amount on line 1a that is section 897 gain attributable to disposition of U.S. real property interests (USRPI). Note: Line 2e is not applicable for recipients that are U.S. individuals.

Line 2f. Shows the portion of the amount on line 2a that is section 897 gain attributable to disposition of USRPI. Note: Line 2f is not applicable for recipients that are U.S. individuals.

Note: Boxes 2e and 2f apply only to foreign persons and entities whose income maintains its character when passed through or distributed to its direct or indirect foreign owners or beneficiaries. It is generally treated as effectively connected to a trade or business within the United States. See the instructions for your tax return. Boxes 2e and 2f do not apply for U.S. individuals.

Line 3. Shows a return of capital. To the extent of your cost (or other basis) in the stock, the distribution reduces your basis and is not taxable. Any amount received in excess of your basis is taxable to you as capital gain. See Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses.

Line 4. See "Backup Withholding" section.

Line 5. Shows the portion of the amount on line 1a that may be eligible for the 20% qualified business income deduction under section 199A. See the instructions for Form 8995 and Form 8995-A.

Line 6. Shows your share of expenses of a nonpublicly offered RIC, generally a nonpublicly offered mutual fund. This amount is included on line 1a.

Instructions for Recipient

Line 7. Shows the foreign tax that you may be able to claim as a deduction or a credit on Form 1040 or 1040-SR. See the Instructions for Form 1040.

Line 8. If foreign withholding occurs in the account, this line will indicate "various" as the foreign country. See the detail statements to identify the country of origin for the withholding. This line should be left blank if a RIC reported the foreign tax shown on line 7.

Lines 9 and 10. Shows cash and noncash liquidation distributions.

Line 11. If the FATCA filing requirement box is checked, the payer is reporting on this Form 1099 to satisfy its account reporting requirement under chapter 4 of the Internal Revenue Code. You may also have a filing requirement. See the Instructions for Form 8938.

Line 12. Shows exempt-interest dividends from a mutual fund or other RIC paid to you during the calendar year. See the Instructions for Form 1040 for where to report. This amount may be subject to backup withholding. See line 4.

Line 13. Shows exempt-interest dividends subject to the alternative minimum tax. This amount is included on line 12. See the Instructions for Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax-Individuals.

Lines 14-16. State income tax withheld reporting lines.

Mutual Fund Dividends Paid in January. Some mutual funds pay dividends in January that are taxable in the prior year. If applicable, see the Detail for Dividends and Distributions statement.

1099-INT Instructions for Recipient

The information provided may be different for COVERED and NONCOVERED securities. For a description of COVERED securities, see the Instructions for Form 8949. For a taxable COVERED security acquired at a premium, unless you notified the payer in writing in accordance with Regulations section 1.6045-1(n)(5) that you did not want to amortize the premium under section 171, or for a tax-exempt COVERED security acquired at a premium, your payer must generally report either (1) a net amount of interest that reflects the offset of the amount of interest paid to you by the amount of premium amortization allocable to the payment(s), or (2) a gross amount for both the interest paid to you and the premium amortization allocable to the payment(s). If you did not notify your payer that you did not want to amortize the premium on a taxable COVERED security, then your payer will only report the gross amount of interest paid to you. For a NONCOVERED security acquired at a premium, your payer is only required to report the gross amount of interest paid to you. American Enterprise Investment Services Inc. will report interest and premium amortization separately as gross amounts.

Line 1. Shows taxable interest paid to you during the calendar year by the payer. This does not include interest shown on line 3. May also show the total amount of the credits from clean renewable energy bonds, new clean renewable energy bonds, qualified energy conservation bonds, qualified zone academy bonds, qualified school construction bonds, and build America bonds that must be included in your interest income. These amounts were treated as paid to you during the calendar year on the credit allowance dates (March 15, June 15, September 15, and December 15). For more information, see Form 8912, Credit to Holders of Tax Credit Bonds. See the instructions above for a taxable COVERED security acquired at a premium.

Line 2. Shows interest or principal forfeited because of early withdrawal of time savings. You may deduct this amount to figure your adjusted gross income on your income tax return. See the instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR to see where to take the deduction.

Line 3. Shows interest on U.S. Savings Bonds, Treasury bills, Treasury bonds, and Treasury notes. This may or may not all be taxable. See Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses. This interest is exempt from state and local income taxes. This interest is not included on line 1. See the instructions above for a taxable COVERED security acquired at a premium.

Line 4. See "Backup Withholding" section.

Line 5. Any amount shown is your share of investment expenses of a single-class REMIC. This amount is included on line 1. Note: This amount is not deductible.

Line 6. Shows foreign tax paid. You may be able to claim this tax as a deduction or a credit on your Form 1040 or 1040-SR. See your tax return instructions.

Line 7. Shows the country or U.S. territory to which the foreign tax was paid.

Line 8. Shows tax-exempt interest paid to you during the calendar year by the payer. See how to report this amount in the Instructions for Form 1040. This amount may be subject to backup withholding. See line 4 above. See the instructions above for a tax-exempt COVERED security acquired at a premium.

Line 9. Shows tax-exempt interest subject to the alternative minimum tax. This amount is included on line 8. See the Instructions for Form 6251, Alternative Minimum Tax-Individuals. See the instructions above for a tax-exempt COVERED security acquired at a premium.

Line 10. For a taxable or tax-exempt COVERED security, if you made an election under section 1278(b) to include market discount in income as it accrues and you notified your payer of the election in writing in accordance with Regulations section

1.6045-1(n)(5), shows the market discount that accrued on the debt instrument during the year while held by you, unless it was reported on Form 1099-OID. For a taxable or tax-exempt COVERED security acquired on or after January 1, 2015, accrued market discount will be calculated on a constant yield basis unless you notified your payer in writing in accordance with Regulations section 1.6045-1(n)(5) that you did not want to make a constant yield election for market discount under section 1276(b). Report the accrued market discount on your income tax return as directed in the Instructions for Forms 1040. Market discount on a U.S. Treasury obligation is exempt from state and local income taxes. Market discount on a tax-exempt security is includible in taxable income as interest income.

Line 11. For a taxable COVERED security (other than a U.S. Treasury obligation), shows the amount of premium amortization allocable to the interest payment(s), unless you notified the payer in writing in accordance with Regulations section 1.6045-1(n)(5) that you did not want to amortize bond premium under section 171. If an amount is reported on this line, see the Instructions for Schedule B (Form 1040) to determine the net amount of interest includible in income on Form 1040 or 1040-SR with respect to the security. If an amount is not reported on this line for a taxable COVERED security acquired at a premium and the payer is reporting premium amortization, the payer has reported a net amount of interest on line 1. If the amount on line 11 is greater than the amount of interest paid on the COVERED security, please see Regulations section 1.171-2(a)(4).

Line 12. For a U.S. Treasury obligation that is a COVERED security, shows the amount of premium amortization allocable to the interest payment(s), unless you notified the payer in writing in accordance with Regulations section 1.6045-1(n)(5) that you did not want to amortize bond premium under section 171. If an amount is reported on this line, see the Instructions for Schedule B (Form 1040) to determine the net amount of interest includible in income on Form 1040 or 1040-SR with respect to the U.S. Treasury obligation. If an amount is not reported on this line for a U.S. Treasury obligation that is a COVERED security acquired at a premium and the payer is reporting premium amortization, the payer has reported a net amount of interest on line 3. If the amount on line 12 is greater than the amount of interest paid on the U.S. Treasury obligation, see Regulations section 1.171-2(a)(4).

Line 13. For a tax-exempt COVERED security, shows the amount of premium amortization allocable to the interest payment(s). If an amount is reported on this line, see Pub. 550 to determine the net amount of tax-exempt interest reportable on Form 1040 or 1040-SR. If an amount is not reported on this line for a tax-exempt COVERED security acquired at a premium, the payer has reported a net amount of interest on line 8 or 9, whichever is applicable. If the amount on line 13 is greater than the amount of interest paid on the tax-exempt COVERED security, the excess is a nondeductible loss. See Regulations section 1.171-2(a)(4)(ii).

Line 14. Shows CUSIP number(s) for tax-exempt bond(s) on which tax-exempt interest was paid, or tax credit bond(s) on which taxable interest was paid or tax credit was allowed, to you during the calendar year. If blank, no CUSIP number was issued for the bond(s).

Lines 15-17. State tax withheld reporting lines.

Noncovered Secondary Market Adjustments. Secondary market adjustments (i.e. bond premium, acquisition premium, and market discount) for noncovered bonds are displayed as supplemental information, which is not reported to the IRS. Work with a tax professional to determine if these adjustments should be reported on your tax return.
